What You Buy With WAR BONDS

It's not a pleasant picture to contemplate, but War calls for "blood and sweat and tears." And the Army Medical Corps, with its efficient nurses and its volunteer Red Cross "Angels of Mercy," needs thousands of surgical beds for field and base hospitals on every front.

These beds cost approximately $22 each. They are the latest thing in modern hospital beds, with elevating springs. In some instances surgical cots are used in temporary field hospitals and there is a folding bed which may be used in ambulances. Your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps can buy many of these beds for the Army. You'll sleep better if you know our boys have every hospital comfort. Buy War Bonds every pay day. Invest ten percent of your income.

ARE YOU putting Ten Per Cent of your Income into U.S. War Bonds & Stamps?

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Barbed wire used by Uncle Sam's fighting forces is vastly different from that used on American farms. Army and Marine barbed wire is much heavier and the barbs, about three inches in length, are more vicious than ordinary barbed wire.

The Marine Corps pays fifty cents for each twelve yards, or 36 feet of this specially manufactured barbed wire. The Army and Marine Corps needs thousands upon thousands of feet for defensive warfare. Your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps will insure sufficient quantity for their needs. Invest at least ten percent of your wages in War Bonds every pay day.

Appomattox is a fine market place for country produce.

Our fighting men are doing their share. Here at home the least we can do is put 10% of our Income in War Bonds for our share in America.

Around the Farm

Farm boys and girls are being encouraged to increase supplies of foods needed in this country by raising pigs, calves and chickens.

* * *

Oats, barley, wheat or rye grass pasture is so high in protein that very little protein feed is needed in the grain mixture for dairy cows.

* * *

Rubber tires will last longer if rubber-tired machines and implements are blocked up, when not in use, to keep the weight off the tires.

* * *

Butter may be successfully stored in sub-zero temperatures for six years, claim Cornell university scientists after taking butter from coolers where it had been stored for that period of time.

* * *

Milk production in this country must be expanded to an all-time high. With dairy production already at a high level and labor and putting scarcer, the job of boosting dairy production is a challenge to every farmer and farm leader in the dairy sections of the nation.

Dairy Cow Requires Protein Supplement

Overfeeding farm grains to dairy cattle in the food production program in an attempt to supply sufficient protein and avoid the purchase of a high protein supplement is false economy, explains J. G. Cash, extension dairy specialist of the University of Illinois college of agriculture.

For example, a cow requiring 16 pounds of a 15 per cent protein mixture a day to meet her needs could get the same amount of protein from 15 pounds of a mixture of equal parts of corn and cob meal and ground oats, but the cost would be greater and the cow probably would not produce as well because of the lack of balance between the protein and carbohydrates.

A suitable mixture containing 15 per cent total protein could be made with 600 pounds of corn and cob meal, 400 pounds ground oats and 200 pounds soybean meal, at a cost of $1.47 a hundred pounds (figuring corn at 70 cents a bushel, oats at 45 cents a bushel and soybean meal at $2.50 a hundred pounds, and adding a grinding charge of 10 cents a hundred pounds for corn and oats). Ten pounds of this mixture would supply 1½ pounds of protein and would cost 14.7 cents.

Warden Makes Women Gasp at His Knitting

EUGENE, ORE.—All the women gasped in admiration at the handiwork of the latest candidate for top knitting honors.

It was a bedspread of intricate pattern containing more than 400 blocks.

James H. Walker, chief warden of the Eastern Lane county fire patrol knitted the spread.

Lamb Fattening Tests

In an effort to help sheepmen find ways to fatten lambs by adding protein to rations, the Cornell university agricultural experiment station tested seven "protein supplements" on lambs. Each lamb received, in addition to the particular protein-rich feed tested, a standard ration of shelled corn, corn silage, ground limestone and salt.

The lambs fed linseed meal in the ration had better appetites than did those fed the other supplements, which included soybean oil meal, whole soybeans, corn gluten meal, distillers' corn dried grain, brewers' dried grains, and urea.

Averaging the two experiments, the feeding value was slightly the highest for whole soybeans, followed by soybean oil meal, corn gluten meal, and linseed meal.

Wheat Poultry Ration

Bushel for bushel, wheat is the cheapest ingredient in the poultry ration today and more and more poultrymen are feeding wheat.

The reason wheat is so cheap at the present time is that the U. S. department of agriculture is putting about 100 million bushels of wheat on the market. This was done to help livestock, dairy, and poultry producers use this wheat for feed and attain food for Freedom production goals.

Giant Hospital Gadget Dismantled for Scrap

CLEVELAND.—A giant shell ball, once used by a sanitarium for pressure treatments of diabetic patients, is being dismantled and 1,000 tons of metal will go to the mills as scrap.

It was erected 13 years ago at a cost reported as $1,000,000, for use in placing diabetics under air pressure. Five stories high and 64 feet in diameter, it contained 40 rooms and baths and was equipped with an elaborate system of compressors and motors.

Three smaller globes also will be razed.

Education To Tie in With War Effort

Richmond, Va., Aug. 19.- Dr. Walter S. Newman, assistant superintendent of public instruction, has announced that following a national conference the latter part of this month on wartime realignment of school courses, the schools of the State will have a definite readjustment of their courses to better fit the pupils to meet the problems of wartimes.

The problem of wartime realignment was discussed last Saturday at Front Royal the first of ten district meetings. Other district meetings will be held after the national conference in Washington, at which will be present educational officials and representatives of the Army, Navy and war industries.

The proposed new program calls for intensive training in courses preparatory to military service, emphasis on physical well-being, adaptation of courses in aeronautical science and the conversion of mathematics and other courses to the needs of the armed services. Emphasis will also be laid on citizenship.

The other district meetings will be held during the week of September 14th.

In making the announcement, Mr. Shepherd said the company's safety activities were in line with President Roosevelt's appeal made in a Proclamation issued August 18, 1941, when he called on each citizen, "to enlist in this campaign and do his part in preventing wastage of human and material resources of the nation accidents."

Local awards went to Robert F. Lynch, of Appomattox, and to employees from the Farmville office.

PAYING FOR SPEEDING

OPA Says Tire Quotas to Be Reduced by 28 Per Cent

The Appomattox War Price and Ration Board received notice yesterday from regional OPA headquarters that September tire quotas will be cut 28 per cent.

The memorandum pointed out that "the impact of this, of course, will be terrific as you can well appreciate." And it was added: "This means that throughout August as well as September, your board will by necessity, be compelled to issue certificates only to the top-most eligibles to the war effort. You are going to have a job on your hands from this moment on which will tend to floor you."

Meanwhile the Appomattox board found the pressure for tires rapidly increasing. In order that the weekly quotas be fairly issued to those engaged in the war effort and in greatest need, the local board will not issue purchase certificates save at its regular Friday meetings. From now on the board will look on all cases as "emergency" cases and at its regular meetings will weight each application in the light of its immediate value to the war program.

BYRD SUGGESTS TAX REST

Richmond, Aug. 19.- Senator Harry Flood Byrd has suggested a two-year rest on tax changes be adopted by Congress after passage of the present tax bill, now undergoing public hearings in the Senate Finance Committee, of which committee Byrd is a member. Many Virginians who have begun to worry about meeting the higher taxes proposed in the nations' greatest revenue measure will no doubt find some consolation in the proposal in that they will know for the next two years just what to expect even if it is a stiff bill to pay.

Proclamation By Mayor

To the People of the Town of Appomattox:

Our beloved nation is engaged in the most horrible and gigantic struggle in its history.

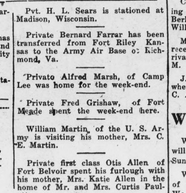
Our freedom is threatened and our democratic form of government is challenged.

The young men and women of our land are being called to arms by the millions in the defense of what we hold dear. At the suggestion of a number of our citizens, I, as Mayor of the Town of Appomattox, am earnestly requesting that at the sound of the Town Siren at 6 o'clock P. M. daily during the duration of the conflict we pause for a moment and offer a silent prayer to God for the men and women in our armed forces. This will start Sunday, August 24.

"For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous and His ears are open unto their prayer." 1 Peter 3-12.

C. S. McDEARMON, Mayor.

On His Own



He looks harmless enough now, but give him time! He's only 12 weeks old, and, with his twin, he has been living with human friends. Now able to take his place in the animal scheme of things, he has been taken to his new home in the small mammal house at the Bronx zoo.

REVIVAL TO END ON SUNDAY NIGHT

It was announced today that the revival at Liberty Baptist church here will conclude with the service Sunday night, August 24. There will be no service Saturday night. Large congregations have attended each evening during the week and heard splendid messages by Dr. John W. Cammack, of Fork Union.

NEW HOPE PICNIC AT HOLLIDAY LAKE

The Junior organizations of the New Hope Baptist church will have their annual picnic on Saturday, August 22 at Holliday Lake. All members of the Y. W. A., G. A., R. A. and Sunbeams are urged to meet at the church at 2:P. M., and to bring their parents. The members of the W. M. U. are invited. There will be transportation for all.

During July we spent 180 million dollars a day on the war effort. Yet figures show that our production is far short of needs.

American pilots are gradually getting into action from bases in England.

A good buy.. War Bonds!

August Quota of Registrants Is 56 and 9

A total of 56 white and 9 colored registrants have been notified by the Selective Service Board of Appomattox county to report here late this month to be sent to the Army induction center in Richmond. Those passing the examinations will be inducted into the armed forces.

Most of the group will leave here on August 29th.

Of a group of nine colored registrants who left here recently, only three passed the Army examinations and were inducted. They were: Asie Abbiti, Hermon Walker and Charles Henry Turner.

It was announced today that 1-B classifications will be discontinued, and no more deferments will be granted registrants seeking commissions. All Selective Service board members and clerks will attend a series of meetings next month at which current regulations will be outlined by state draft officials. The local board will attend such a meeting on September 15th.

One reason for the size of recent monthly quotas, it appears, is the amazing number of men who cannot pass the Army examinations. Some counties find that half of their men are physically unfit or otherwise unable to meet service requirements. Most disquieting cause of rejection is the alarming number of men who cannot read or write. Army standards have and are being lowered in order that some of these men may be inducted. The abandonment of the 1-B classification is a step in this direction. The Army will begin to accept a number of men with minor physical defects.

RED CROSS CERTIFICATES

Certificates were awarded Monday night to members of a recently completed class in home nursing, sponsored by the Appomattox Chapter of the Red Cross. Miss Sue Davidson, RN., conducted the class.

This was the latest of a series of special classes offered by the Red Cross here, under arrangements made throigh Miss Eula May Burke, chapter chairman.

Heavy Rains Cut Prospects For Crops over the State

Heavy rains habe had an adverse effect on most crops in this section and farmers are in the midst of a delicate harvesting process.

The Appomattox tomato canmery has begun operations, but the harvesting of tomatoes has been made difficult by the repeated rains.

The condition has prevailed over much of the State, according to the Virginia Co-operative Crop Reporting Service. Special concern is felt about both dark and bright tobacco harvests. The quality of the leaf may be lowered by excessive dampness.
